Eucharist Instruction for Grades 1-3

Coming January 13th

First, second, and third grade children at St. Peter's will have the opportunity to learn about the Eucharist beginning Sunday, January 13. The class will culminate March 3 with the visit of Bishop Suffragan Jennifer Brooke-Davidson.

The children will gather in the Chapel at 10:15. Then they will go into the church and examine the furnishing and layout of the church, the sacristy, the baptismal font, and the altar area. They will learn the names of the sacred vessels, the sacred furniture and the meanings and symbolism of these items. They will be given the opportunity to ask questions, to handle, to move around while being respectful of this sacred place.

Each week children and their families will receive "Eucharist Instruction at Home," materials so the family can learn and grow together.

These young Christians will learn why Anglicans consider the Eucharist so important and what the form means, as the curriculum is modeled on the Eucharist format itself. We gather, we hear the Word of God, we respond to the Word, we offer our gifts, we celebrate, and we are sent out.

This is a wonderful opportunity for our children to know more about the Eucharist, Christ, and the church. We hope your children can attend.
