Life Lessons from Acts – MPR, Tucker Hall. This study asks a number of questions about the early church and about us. Having been brought face to face with God, the early disciples couldn't remain the same. Their days were full of witnessing, ministering, solving problems, and resolving differences. They lived a God-centered life, followed God's leading, and saw God's faithfulness. They were transformed. They founded the early Church and gave us a legacy of faith. The earliest Christians demonstrate that what God did for them, He longs to do for you. The book, written by Max Lucado, may be purchased from the Amazon website.

06:30 pm

Sisters and Scripture – Parlor. The women in Sisters and Scripture come together for prayer and study. This year we will study Inspired by Rachel Held Evans. New York Times bestselling author Rachel Held Evans invites readers on a journey of rediscovery as she explores the magic of the Bible, engaging the old, familiar stories in new ways that honor the past and enlighten the present. Adult Education

Adult Sunday School – Into the World: The Acts of the Apostles

When: 10:15-11:10 am
Where: Multi-Purpose Room, Tucker Hall
Sam Hunnicutt, leader, saustinhunnicutt@gmail.com

“Throughout the Bible God calls a people together, promises to be present with them in love, and sends them into the world to live for God. The Book of Acts is the continuation of this story that began with the call of Abraham and Sarah and has not yet ended. Acts holds a pivotal place in the Bible's story. If the Gospels link the promises God made to Israel with the coming of Jesus, then the Book of Acts links Jesus to the church which bears his name.” (From the introduction of, “Into The World: The Acts of the Apostles.”)

Adult Sunday School – News, Reviews & Special Topics

When: 10:15-11:10 am,
Where: Audio-Visual Room on the 2nd floor, Church Office
Dane Tune, leader, danetune@yahoo.com

News, Reviews & Special Topics is usually provocative, sometimes controversial and a never dull examination of current events in both religious and secular worlds with an eye to the moral and ethical content of these events. This class is designed to raise both the ethical and moral issues in our contemporary culture and to provide our thought about appropriate religious and specifically Christian responses to them. While the subject is carefully prepared, the class encourages full discussion from the participants.

Adult Sunday School – Spiritual Formation

When: 10:15-11:10 am

Where: Church Library, Church Office

Susan Clark, leader, sclark2@washcoll.edu

The spiritual formation group chooses and studies books on many different subjects related to our Christian faith. The class begins with prayer and then members enjoy a lively discussion of the chapter read for the day. Everyone's opinion matters and is respected by the group. Everyone is welcome!
