Treasure Questions

from Children's Chapel

The Children's Illustrated Bible

Luke 12:49-56

1. Today's Gospel sounds scary. Why do you think Jesus felt he was under stress?
2. What was he talking about that had to be completed?
3. Does Jesus mean by division that some will follow him, and some will not? What do you think he means?
4. Do you think Jesus was frustrated that people could interpret the weather, but they didn't understand him?

A Message from St. Peter's School:

Every quarter, the School receives a special plate offering.

August 18th is one of the four Sundays for this special offering.

This year, these donations are designated to our School's Scholarship Program.

The demand for tuition assistance is higher than ever, and with your help, we are working to meet the needs of our young families.

Thank you for supporting the School's mission as an outreach into our community to provide young children an enriched early childhood education in a caring Christian environment.
