A SPECIAL OFFERING COMING ON GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 14th

Sharing with you now so you can plan your schedule.

Some years ago I had the opportunity to write meditations on “THE SEVEN LAST WORDS FROM THE CROSS” as experienced, from the perspective of

LONGINUS, ROMAN CENTURION,

the Commanding Officer of the execution squad that first Good Friday

Our service will begin at noon on Good Friday and conclude at 3:00 p.m., corresponding with the time our Lord hung on the Cross. There will be Meditations on the Seven Last Words, followed by prayer, silence, organ, and hymns. Each “segment” throughout the three hours is some twenty five minutes. You are free to come and go during these periods of silence, but, I urge you, if possible, to arrange your schedule allowing you to remain for the entire service.

As it was for Longinus, it just might be a life changing experience for you.

Longinus begins: “My men and I were assigned to the execution detail on that particular Friday. Crucifixion was nothing new, we did it all the time.....but, this one, this prisoner, was different. I could sense it from the very moment we were summoned to take him away to Golgotha and crucify him.....”

Longinus concludes: “There are decisions to be made at the Cross that determine character and destiny – there is no evasion possible. Evasion itself is a moral decision, though a negative one.....”

SEE YOU AT THE FOOT OF THE CROSS GOOD FRIDAY.

The Rev. Richard H. Elwood, Interim Rector

“Giving Over”

The festivities of Christmas and Epiphany thrust us into the season of Lent as we celebrate with the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper and conduct our Ash Wednesday services at or around the time of reading this article. All of these festivities may have left us breathless and fatigued as maybe we have been focusing so much on others. Now our focus changes from the outward to the inward. Personal physical and emotional stumbling blocks to a growing relationship with God. Self-examination can be a rather uncomfortable and sometimes painful experience. To identify and remove hindrances to our relationship with God means hard work. By nature, this experience conjures up negative emotions, which may lead to disappointment and depression.

During Lent I am always asked the question, “What have you given up for Lent?” Remember that Lent is meant to be an introspective time examining our hindrances to a full and complete relationship with God. My response is always followed by an explanation of “giving up.” I can always “give up” caffeine, soft drinks, chocolate, sugar, dessert and many other items but what about those things that really keep me from God? Selfish thoughts, anger, impatience, rigidity and many others come to mind. I could give these up as I would the former but that simply would be creating empty space either in my stomach or in my heart. If I replaced them with God’s presence then that would be removing a hindrance but allow my relationship with God to grow. Isn’t that what Lent is all about? That is really “giving over” to God. By “giving over” to God and not simply “giving up,” allows God the room in my heart to radically transform it. Each Lent I give up my most valued possession, my time. I attempt to increase my prayer, reading and devotional time. I turn over my time and allow God to fill it thus allowing God to radically transform my heart. On Easter Jesus radically transforms death by beating it and giving each of us eternal life and ever transforming our hearts.

JANUARY VESTRY REPORT

The Vestry met on Monday, January 23. After opening prayer by the Interim Rector, the Vestry approved the minutes of the December 19, 2016 meeting, recorded by the clerk, Deborah Rommel.

Deborah Rommel had emailed a report of the school board meeting from January 9, 2017. She reminded us of the Community luncheon fund raiser on Feb. 9, at noon in Tucker Hall.

Chrisie Jennings, Parish Administrator presented the 2016 financials. Income for the year was lower than predicted. Expenses were less than budgeted. The vestry voted to use investment income to fully fund the 2016 budget.

With current budgeted income, we face a deficit budget for 2017. There is additional investment income available, but the Vestry was reminded of the risk of relying on these funds to balance the budget each year. There was discussion of the need to increase income in order to balance the budget.

Barbara Cordova reported that there are no prospects for the Music Director/Organist position. She asked for continued prayers for an organist.

Earnest Roofing has inspected all the roofs for hail damage.

After the January meeting we received a report from Earnest Roofing, which was distributed to the Vestry by email. The damage was determined to be cosmetic. There are no roof leaks at this time. The Vestry voted by email that in order to avoid an increase in insurance premiums, we should live with the cosmetic damage, and not file an insurance claim at this time.

The latest version of the Parish Profile was approved.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

St. Peter's Church is all about tradition. One of ours will be coming around as Lent is fast approaching. That is our E.C.W. Lenten Soup Suppers and Lecture Series that will be held on five (5) Wednesday nights during Lent.

We're fasting (supposedly) and we'll have a light supper of soup and bread and hear a good program to reflect on for Lent. Our fine Interim Rector, Fr. Dick, has arranged a great list of speakers for us this year and we are again asking the ladies (or men) to provide a meal of soup.

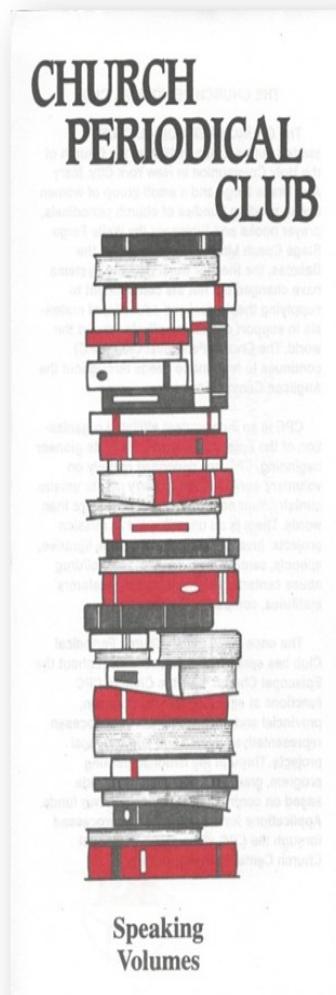

We need ten (10) soup makers each week. There is no particular theme or recipe. Some soup are gourmet and some are chuckwagon hearty but they are all always delicious. You are asked to serve your soup only, no cleanup required. Special menu table for tiny tots.

Can you help out this year and be a soup maker on one of these dates?

MARCH 8, 15, 22, 29, AND APRIL 5, 2017

Church Periodical Club Ingathering Sunday, March 26th

The Church Periodical Club (CPC) was founded in 1888 by Mary Ann Fargo and a small group of women in the parish of The Church of the Holy Communion in New York City. They began by sending bundles of church periodicals, prayer books, and Bibles via the Wells Fargo Stage Coach Line to clergy and laity, missionaries and Indians in the Dakotas, and the "far west". Much of the early growth of the Church Periodical Club was due to the fostering care of the Women's Auxiliary, now known as the Episcopal Church Women. This close relationship has continued through the years. By 1892, the Church Periodical Club was active in 48 dioceses providing many kinds of printed materials and a national office was established. In 1920, the National Church recognized the Church Periodical Club's great missionary work and it became a cooperating agency.

In the 1940's, the National Books Fund Committee was established to meet the rapidly growing book needs of the many overseas mission programs.

Since 1970, the CPC has been a self-supporting affiliated organization of the Episcopal Church with its office located in the Church Center in New York City. Delivery systems have changed but not the commitment. Supplying theological and educational texts, audio and video tapes and now computer software has enabled the CPC to continuously answer the needs of the worldwide Anglican Communion for over 100 years.

As a St. Peters parishioner, concerned with supporting missionary efforts, you are invited to give the gift that speaks volumes. Look for your special CPC envelope in the bulletin on...Sunday, March 26th.

A Note from the Senior Warden

Greetings! I pray that you are well and that you have so far avoided the flu. It seems unfair that we have to deal with "cedar fever" AND the flu. But aren't we lucky to live in the beautiful Hill Country?

Thanks to all who attended the Annual Meeting. Thank you for turning out to vote for the new Vestry Class of 2020, and a special thank you to those brave souls who stayed to listen to the financial report, ask questions, and vote on the budget. Money is never an easy subject for me to talk about, but your vestry and I believe that we need to increase our income in order to keep the personnel and the programs we have in place. If you have already pledged an amount for 2017, thank you. Please consider giving more. If you have not pledged, please consider a weekly or monthly pledge. If pledging is not "your thing," please come to church and put as much as you are able in the plate on Sunday. If you have ideas of how to raise our income, don't be shy, give us a call. Any amount helps us to fulfill our mission of Giving glory to God by knowing Jesus Christ, and making Him known to others.

We had a successful Vestry Retreat at Camp Capers Feb. 3-4, led by Interim Rector Dick Elwood. The retreat is always an exciting time to get to know each other better, and discuss new ideas. This Vestry is a great group of people dedicated to making St. Peter's even better by increasing attendance, spreading God's love through mission, and being good stewards of our resources, both spiritual and monetary. We recognize that there is always room for improvement, so if you have an idea that you feel can make St. Peter's a better place, please let us know.

By the time you read this, we will have a new Suffragan Bishop for the Diocese of West Texas. We have been praying for several months that God guide the minds of those who will choose this person. I hope that you will join me in continuing to pray daily for whoever is elected.

I also request that you pray daily for the members of our search committee, that they be guided to the person God has chosen to be the next Rector of St. Peter's.

I hope to see you at the Lenten Soup Suppers in Tucker Hall on Wednesday evenings during Lent... March 8, 15, 22, 29, and April 5. An engaging panel of speakers has been scheduled to speak on their journey of faith. If you are looking for a discipline to enhance your Lenten Journey, I encourage you to attend these Soup Suppers and the programs which follow. Child care and King's Kidz continue to be offered on Wednesdays during Lent.

Until next time I'll leave you with this: "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." Matthew 16:24
